CITYVIEW

Where You Live Matters

RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

MARIA R.

Maria was born and raised in

Cuba. She loves going out to eat with her family who come very often to take her out for the weekend, and her favorite place to go is Glendale Galleria. Maria also loves to play dominoes and enjoys coloring and painting. You can always find Maria coloring in her free time as she finds it very relaxing. Maria says she loves being at CityView because the staff treats her well and she feels relaxed living here.

Who is this Famous Resident?

This famous resident was born in Vancouver, B.C. She took elocution classes and performed from ages 4-6 and winning 1st place prizes for memorizing speeches. She went to Los Angeles Art Institute as well as attended Chenard. She painted this picture in 1969 and it was displayed in W&J Sloanes in Beverly Hills for an Easter display. Her friend did the artwork in Gone with the Wind and invited various people to come and view the painting show here. One of the invitees was author Ray Bradbury. Who is this famous resident?
