RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

SANDRA N.

Meet Sandra—along with her beloved service dog, Shadow! Originally from Puerto Rico, she has led a life filled with music and achievement. As a pioneering percussionist, conductor, and educator, she has performed and taught around the world. Some of her most remarkable accomplishments include conducting orchestras in Kiev and Bulgaria, performing as a timpanist, recording five CDs with The Women's Philharmonic, founding and conducting the Oakland Public Conservatory of Music Symphony Orchestra, and mentoring young musicians through the Asian Children's Percussion Ensemble.

Having contracted polio as an infant, she now experiences post-polio symptoms, including balance challenges—something Shadow helps her navigate with ease. Impressively, she trained Shadow herself!

Always eager to share her expertise, Sandra hopes to start a rhythm activity at CityView and contribute in any way she can. Whether you're curious about an instrument or simply want to talk music, she'd love to help. Her story is far too rich to capture in just a few sentences—stop by for a conversation, and you'll be glad you did!
